

What is the BloodMoon Faire™?

Magical and mysterious Travelers have taken up residence in the Gothic Hills Cemetery and they're inviting everyone to come celebrate with them at the BloodMoon Faire™! Attractions will include (subject to change):

- Every weekend in October 2016, Orcas Park is transformed into a creepy graveyard where the Travelers have setup a highly themed festival full of magic and wonder!
- Unique artisans and craftsmen from around the globe!
- Wandering and staged entertainers, performers and musicians!
- Spectacular parades nightly, featuring the BloodMoon Queen and her arch enemy Balthazar Von Pumpnickel III!
- Exciting carnival games of skill & chance with amazing prizes!
- Tantalizing food & drink galore!
- The incredible Enchanted Forest lounge where you can kick back enjoy a drink and take in some sultry jazz performances surrounded by magical creatures!
- Ghosts, goblins and villagers wandering and hiding behind every corner!
- Traveler School - Traveling Lessons and activities for the whole family!
- Weekend events including Rocky Horror & Masquerade nights!
- Phantom Finder hunts - use your mobile phone to hunt for ghosts in the graveyard!

But wait! There's more!

The crown jewel of this event will be the spooktacular Gothic Hills Manor, the world's FIRST CROWDSOURCED haunted attraction! Creep through room after room of angry ghosts who seek revenge on the only inhabitant of the mansion, the grave keeper, who has neglected to treat their worldly remains with the proper respect the deceased deserve. The haunt will be designed by curated artists from all over southern california hoping to win a cash prize for the best room design!

Find out more @ www.BloodMoonFaire.com
Facebook/Twitter/Instagram: /BloodMoonFaire
#BloodMoonFaire